RAK Company Administration participates in Shorex Wealth Management Forum Geneva 2010

RAK Company Administration, the largest registered agent of RAK Offshore announces that it will be participating in Shorex Wealth Management Forum, which will be held in Geneva from 19-20 October 2010.

This participation will be in collaboration with RAK Offshore (a division of RAK Investment Authority, Government of RAK) as the two organisations will conduct a joint exhibition on Stand No.12 of Shorex Wealth Management Forum in Geneva.

RAK Offshore has been developed to provide a straightforward and cost-effective business platform for non-residents and international companies looking to take advantage of the ongoing economic boom in the Middle East.

"Our main message will be to let the visitors understand the unrivalled business and investment opportunities the Emirate of Ras Al Khaimah has to offer, in addition to different business solutions in a tax-free climate" Mr. Peter Schuster, General Manager of RAK Offshore said.

RAK Company Administration is expected to attract double the number of participants and visitors than the previous event which was held in Geneva in April 2009.

"With a wide variety of decision-makers and industry leaders who will be present, Shorex Wealth Management Forum is an ideal platform for RAK Company Administration to introduce its products and services", Mr. Shahab Izadpanah, CEO of RAK Company Administration said.

RAK Company Administration offers a full range of corporate services and is able to professionally assist its clients on all aspects of company formation: Offshore Companies, Free Zone Companies, Limited Liabilities Companies, Branch Offices, and Representative Offices, in addition to other services such as Property Services, Accounting and Book Keeping, Auditing and Advisory Services.

RAKCA products and services are also accessible through its European head office in Geneva as well as through its Dubai office.
